Berlin, March 29. N. S.

THE Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, who arrived here on Saturday laſt, has been receiv'd by his Pruſſian Majeſty with great Satisfaction, and earneſtly preſt to continue here this Week, ſo that it will be Tueſday next before he ſets forward for the Hague. The General Craſſau who was ſent to this Court by the Duke of Mecklenbourg-Swerin, to entreat the King to uſe his good Offices with his Daniſh Majeſty, for reſtraining the Diſorders that are daily committed in that Dutchy, and for the Payment of ſuch Proviſions and Forage as have been delivered to thoſe Forces, continues his Sollicitations, but has not as yet receiv'd any Anſwer.

Bruſſels, April 4. N. S. The States of the Provinces of Brabant, Hainault and Flanders, were aſſembled on the Thirtieth paſt at this Place, at Mons and at Gand, in order to receive the Propoſition, agreed to be made them in the Emperor's Name, for an extraordinary Subſidy, towards Furniſhing Bread and Forage to the Body of Imperialiſts deſign'd to Act on this ſide during the Campaign. Thoſe of Brabant adjourn'd themſelves to the Thirteenth of this Month, without concluding any thing. The Deputies of the ſeveral Diſtricts of Flanders, are return'd to report to their Principals the Propoſal made to them, upon which they will return to Gand with their Anſwer; but the States of Hainault being ſtill aſſembled, their Reſolution is not yet known. They write from Douay of the Thirty firſt paſt, that the Morning before at Four a Clock, a ſtrong Body of the Enemies Forces, with ſeveral Pieces of Cannon and Mortars, had made themſelves Maſters of l'Ecluſe, and took the Garriſon, conſiſting of Three hundred Men, Priſoners of War. In the Afternoon, Brigadier Savery having been Detach'd from Douay with Two hundred Horſe, to get Intelligence of the Enemy, was encompaſſed by them, and likewiſe made Priſoner with his Detachment. On the Thirty firſt paſt, Lieutenant-General Withers arriv'd here from Gand, with a Deſign to review the two Battalions of Her Majeſty's Foot Guards, which he did on Saturday Morning.

Bruſſels, April 7. N. S. The States of the Provinces of Hainault have conſented to Ninety thouſand of the Hundred thouſand Florins, demanded of them for their Contingent of the Charge of furniſhing Bread and Forage to the Imperial Troops who are to ſerve on this ſide, during the next Campaign. In a few Days the Reſolutions of the States of Brabant and Flanders will be known on the ſame Subject, and there ſeems no reaſon to apprehend they will not likewiſe give their conſent to the Demands made on them for the ſame Service. The March of the Garriſons of Brabant and Flanders, towards the general Rendezvous for aſſembling the Army, being deferr'd for three Days, the Troops quarter'd in this City, will not move till the Fourteenth; and thoſe quarter'd on the Meuſe which are to make the Campaign, are expected this Evening at Louvain.

Hague, April 5. N. S. On Wedneſday laſt Prince Eugene diſpatch'd an Expreſs to Vienna, to give Advice of his Arrival here, and to know, whether he is to go to that Court, or to the Army in Flanders. On Saturday Morning arriv'd here a Courier to the States-General, with the News, that the French had taken the Fort of l'Ecluſe; but that the Earl of Albemarle was making all neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the re-taking of it. The Count Sinzendorff, and Monſieur Conſbruck, the Imperial Plenipotentiaries, Monſieur de Mellarede, the Plenipotentiary of Savoy, with other Miniſters, came hither on Saturday laſt, to make a Viſit to Prince Eugene, who, for theſe two Days, has been in Conference with the Imperial Miniſters.

Utrecht, April 5. N. S. On Saturday the Second Inſtant, a General Conference was held, at which the Miniſters of the Allies propos'd again, to thoſe of France, their giving Specifick Anſwers to the Specifick Demands of the Allies, which occaſion'd a long Debate; but nothing was agreed upon more than the holding another General Conference to Morrow Morning on the ſame Subject. The Miniſters of the Allies held a Conference this Morning, to concert among themſelves, the manner of Proceeding with the French to Morrow, and it was agreed ſtill, to inſiſt upon their giving Anſwers in Writing. Count Sinzendorff and Count Conſbruck, who went on Saturday to the Hague, to meet Prince Eugene of Savoy, are return'd hither, together with Don Louis Da Cunha, the King of Portugal's Second Plenipotentiary, and aſſiſted this Morning at the Conference. Mr. Harley, who is ſent from the Queen of Great Britain to the Court of Hannover, is come hither to confer with Her Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries before he proceeds on his Journy. Monſieur Mareſchalch de Bieberſteyn, the King of Pruſſia's Third Plenipotentiary for this Congreſs, is likewiſe arrived here from England, and aſſiſted this Morning at the Conference.

Utrecht, April 6. N. S. This Day a General Conference was held, wherein the Miniſters of the Allies having inſiſted, as before, for an Anſwer in Writing from thoſe of France, the latter alledg'd, That their Inſtructions allow'd them to go no further, but promis'd to write to the King their Maſter, in order to know his Pleaſure on that Subject, in which the Miniſters of the Allies acquieſced.

Utrecht, April 8. N. S. It having been agreed, in the laſt General Conference, that none ſhould be held to Morrow, unleſs ſome extraordinary occaſion required it, the Counts Sinzendorff and Conſbruck, as likewiſe ſome of the Plenipotentiaries of the States have, in the mean while, thought fit to go to the Hague, but are expected back here on Tueſday, in order to aſſiſt at the Conference that is to be held with the French Miniſters
